

Need more dogs in your life?

Come to a free “Dogs Playing For Life” seminar!

What Will the Seminar Offer?

- Specific guidelines and tips for introducing dogs into playgroups
- Tips on how to effectively manage healthy canine play with a diverse group of dogs with different personalities, play styles and backgrounds
- Signs to watch for to avoid problem interactions
- Reasons why utilizing playgroups will help facilitate better adoption matching

What is Dogs Playing for Life?

Dogs Playing for Life is an acclaimed enrichment program for shelter dogs featuring canine play groups. Introduced in shelters across the U.S. and Canada, this program utilizes play groups as an assessment, enrichment, training and adoption enhancement tool that helps shelters save lives. Learn more at dosplayingforlife.com.

Who Can Attend?

The Dogs Playing for Life seminars are open to ALL VOLUNTEERS and professionals over the age of 18, who are interested in volunteering with the shelter’s “Dogs Playing for Life” program launching in February.

Hosted by Escambia County Animal Services

When: Tuesday, Jan. 23 from 1 - 4:30 p.m. and 6 - 9 p.m.

Where: 1 - 4:30 p.m. session will be held at the Genealogy Library, 5740 N. Ninth Ave. in Pensacola. The 6 - 9 p.m. session will be held at the Escambia County Central Office Complex, 3363 West Park Place, Room 104, Pensacola.

To Register: email animalshelter@myescambia.com or stop by the shelter at 200 W. Fairfield Drive, Pensacola, FL 32502.