

Escambia County, U.S. Navy to Host Two Public Workshops on AICUZ

The Escambia County Development Services Department, along with the U.S. Navy, will hold public workshops regarding updating the county's Air Installation Compatible Use Zone maps.

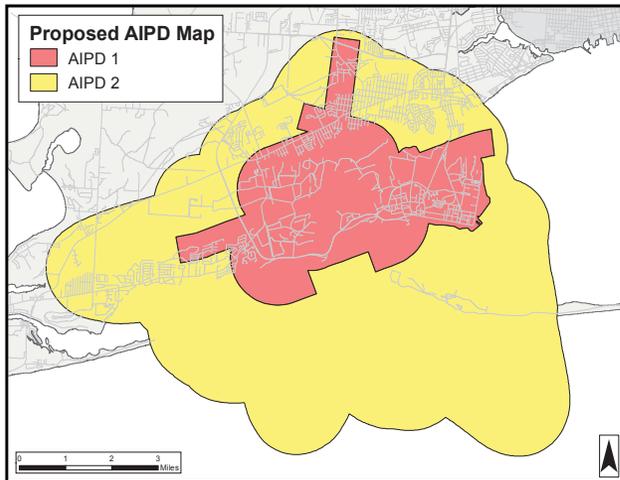

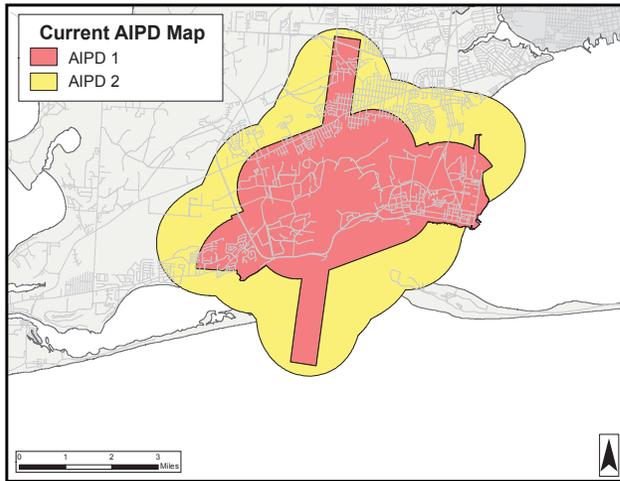

You have been identified as a property owner within an AICUZ as established by the U.S. Navy. While your single-family home on a recorded parcel is not in jeopardy, there may be changes to allowed uses and densities.

Residents are encouraged to attend one of the following public workshops concerning adoption of the Navy's updated AICUZ maps:

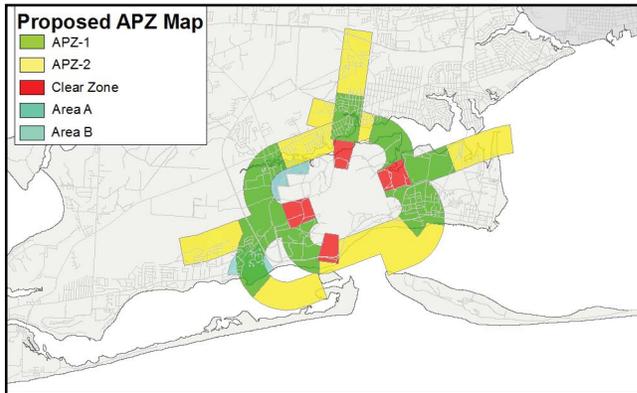

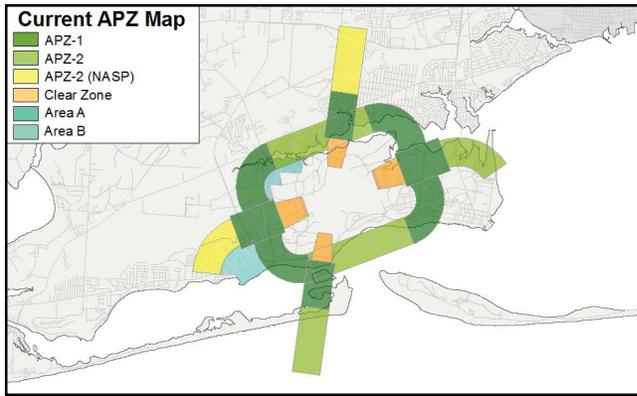

Monday, Oct. 10 & 17

Pensacola State College - Warrington, 5555 W. Highway 98
McMillian Room (3728, 3729, 3730)
5:30–8 p.m.

For questions about these meetings, contact Escambia County Development Services at (850) 595-3475.
