

LABOR MARKET ANALYSIS FOR INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY AND ADVANCED MANUFACTURING

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY:

Industry Recognized Occupations in IT
Software developers and Programmers
Information Security
Network Administration/Security
Database Administration/Developers
Data Transformation/Analyst
Project Management
Desktop Support
Quality Assurance/Testing
Designer/User Experience (UX)
Electronics Engineering

**all research & figures represent the Pensacola MSA (Escambia & Santa Rosa Counties)*

Total Demand Projected in the Next 5 Years:
1,092 new and replacement workers

Average Earnings Per Job:
$70,667

ADVANCED MANUFACTURING:

Industry Recognized Occupations Advanced Manufacturing
Maintenance Technicians: Industrial Maintenance, Welding, Industrial Engineering Technicians, Aircraft/General Mechanics
Advanced Manufacturing Technicians: Instrumentation, Electrical, Mechanical and Technical, Programmable Logic Control, Motor Control, Electrical & Instrumentation/Controls
Process Technicians: Process operator, Process technologist, Machinist
Industrial Plumbing: Plumbing, Pipefitting, Industrial Piping, and Tubing Mechanics
Quality Assurance Technicians: Quality Assurance, Inspection, Statistical Process Control, Laboratory Technician

**all research & figures represent the Pensacola MSA (Escambia & Santa Rosa Counties)*

Total Demand Projected in the Next 5 Years:
2,150 new and replacement workers

Average Earnings Per Job:
$68,635